

Aims and Scope

Bulletin of the Polish Academy of Sciences: Technical Sciences (Bull. Pol. Ac.: Tech.) is published by Division IV Technical Sciences of the Polish Academy of Sciences. This journal is established for the publication of papers concerning technical sciences between them the following scientific branches are preferred:

- bioengineering,
- nanotechnology,
- optoelectronics and photonics, and
- informatics.

Bull. Pol. Ac.: Tech. covers the whole field of theory, experimental techniques and instrumentation and brings together, within one journal, contributions from a wide range of disciplines. The journal is an indispensable forum for the exchange of knowledge and experience between professionals from both academic and industrial environments. The papers covering novel topics extending the frontiers in technical sciences and establishing inspirations for future studies are very encouraged.

Articles are published in Bull. Pol. Ac.: Tech. in the following categories:

- invited reviews presenting the current state of the knowledge,
- refereed research papers reporting on original scientific or technological achievements,
- special issues serving as conference proceedings or as invited and original papers devoted novel topics; both types of special issues are usually arranged by guest editors,
- short news informing on recent research trends and technical achievements, dealing with any aspect of scientific, technological, technical, and industrial works,
- letters to the Editors,
- miscellany on various subjects, including conference reports and announcements (forthcoming events), presentations of events with the Polish Academy of Science's activity, presentations of research laboratories, industrial news and updates, advertisements, etc.
